To: Freddie

A person who I haven't known not long but is now getting to know you better as we share our faithful relationship. We have been mad at one another, I hope we will never have another argument like "ALL GREEN" puts it because I hope we will always be at all time. Let's put our HEADS together and even more. if it's a life time, let's always be a person in a life time, let's never depart from each other and be smart, Let's never depart from me at all time

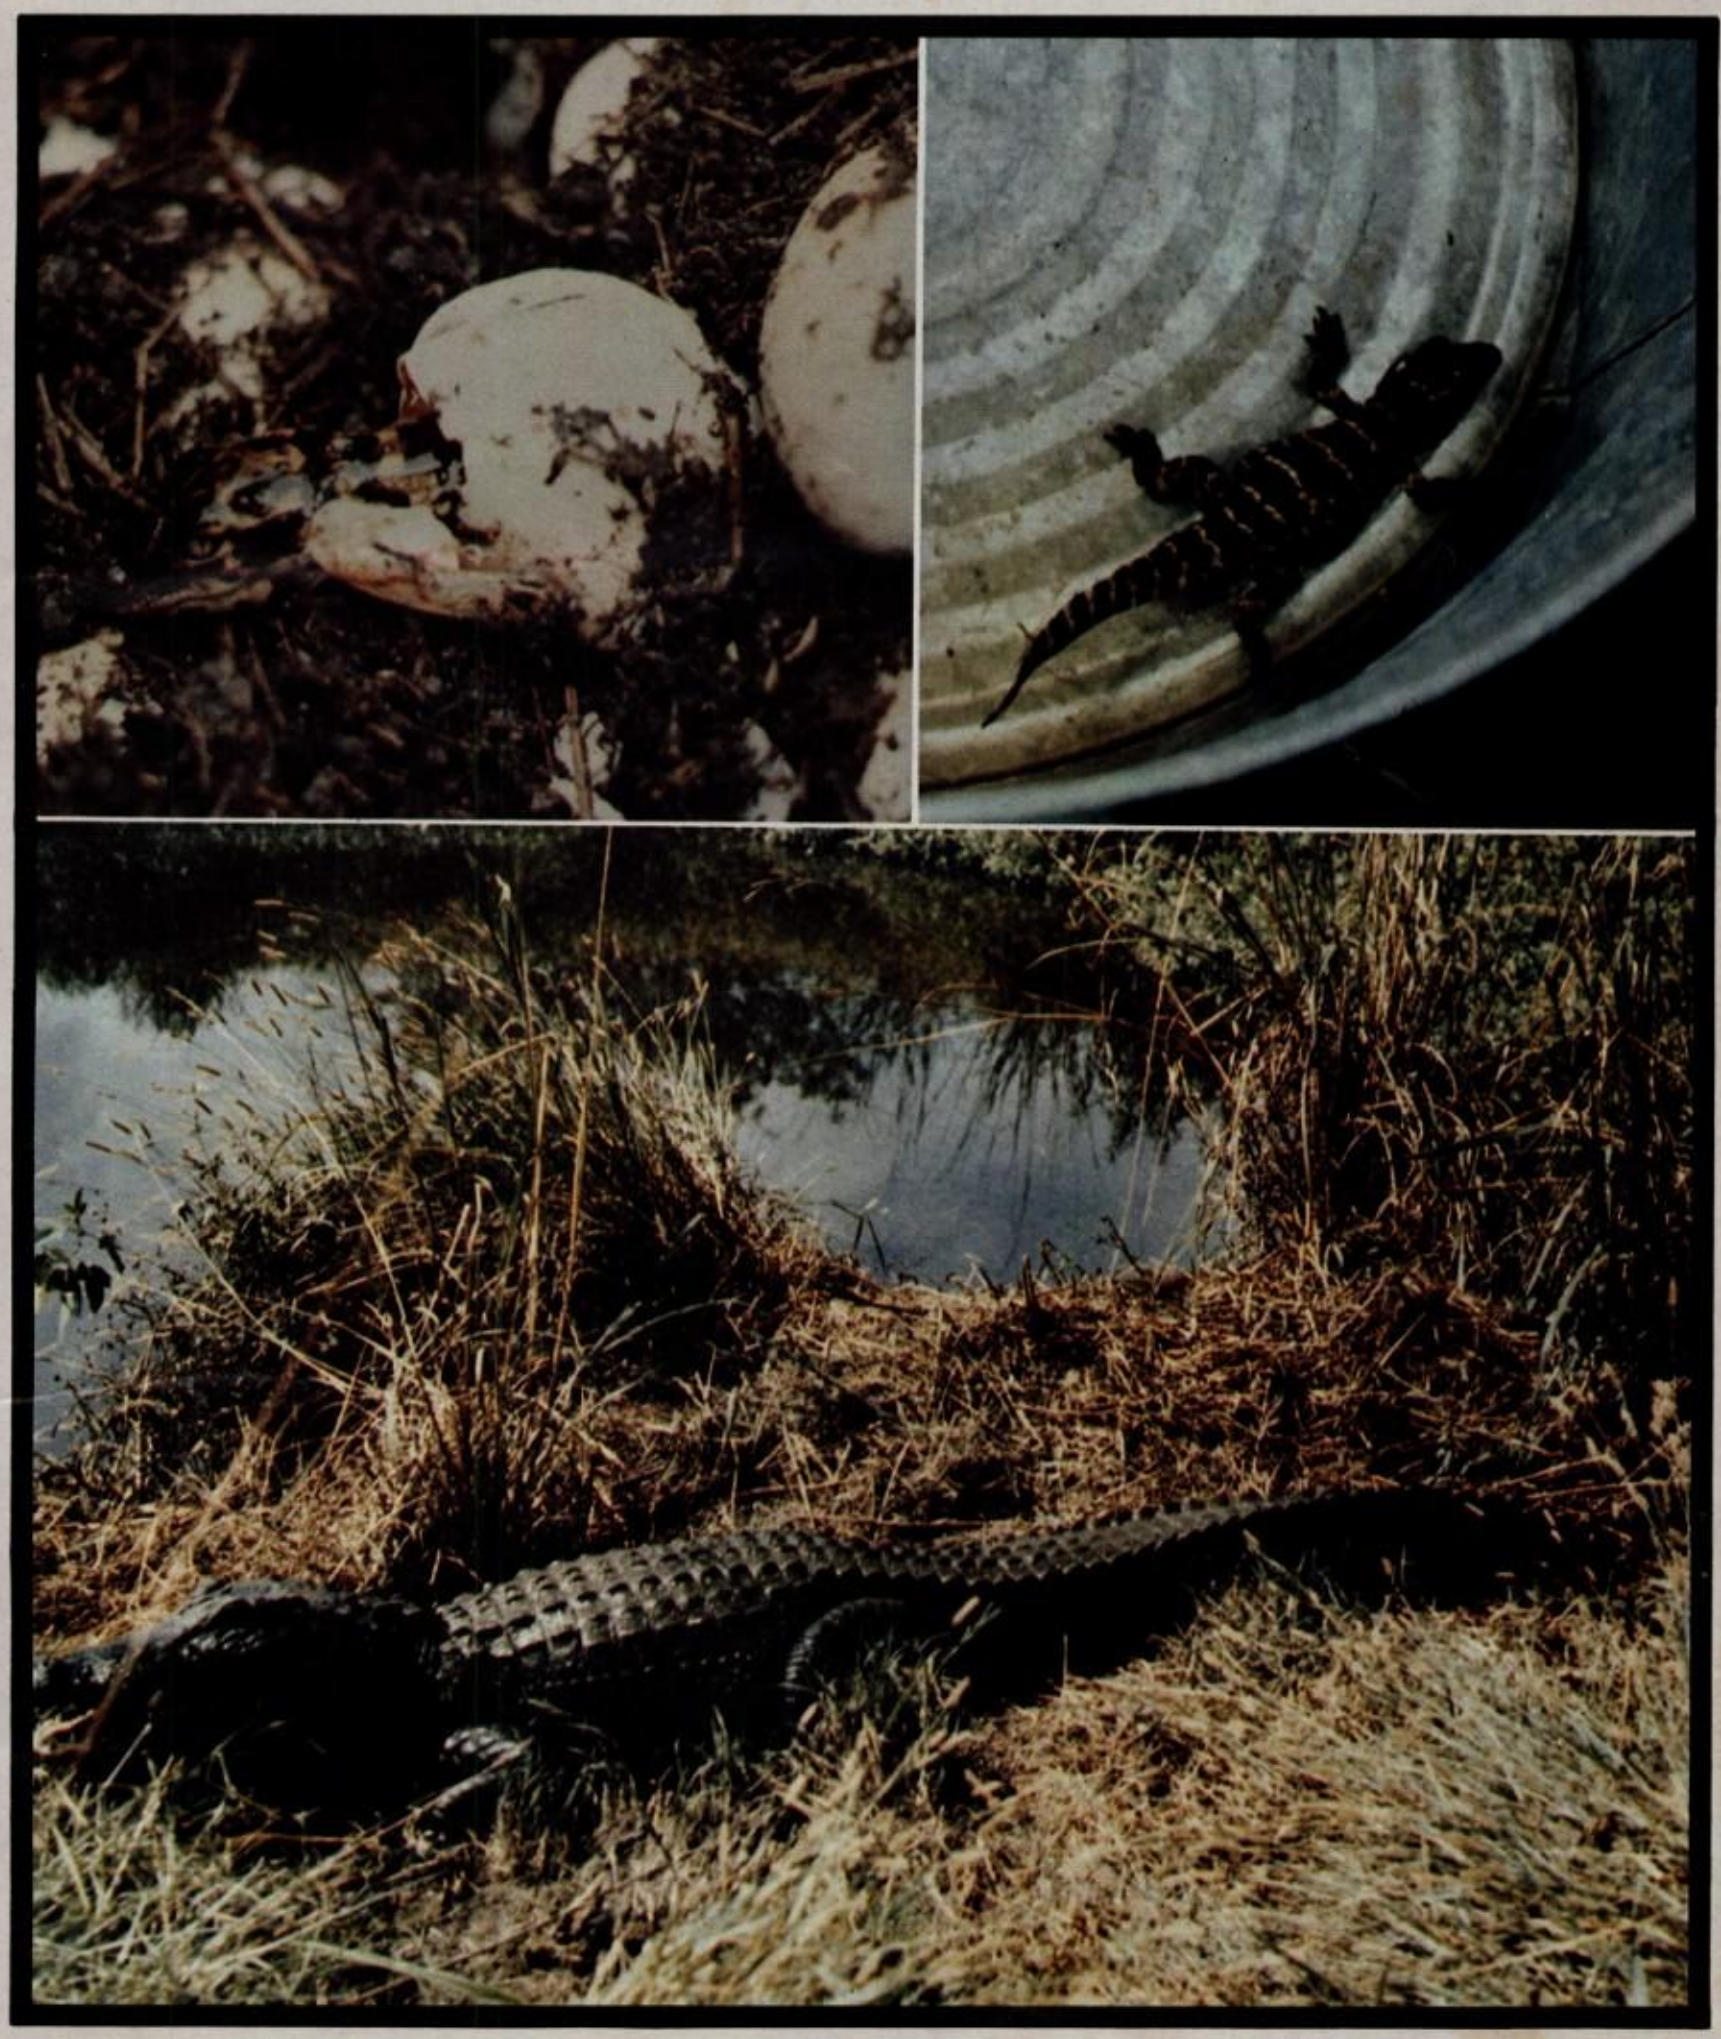
VOLUME IX



Your key is forged.
With it comes the facing of the doors.

We have tried to knotch and groove your key
in order that it would fit any lock you approach.
Many times however, we have been faced with impending obstacles.

Our plan was for a master key,
one that would suffice all locks.

Some of you, however,
have missed locks,
grooved too deeply,
or added notches which were not intended for effective use.

Others have formed their keys in correspondence to the plan.

For some,
these differences curtail the usage of the key.
For others,
they extend its powers.
For all,
a voyage through many doors and many passages begins.

The key is now yours.
Only you can turn it;
do so wisely.

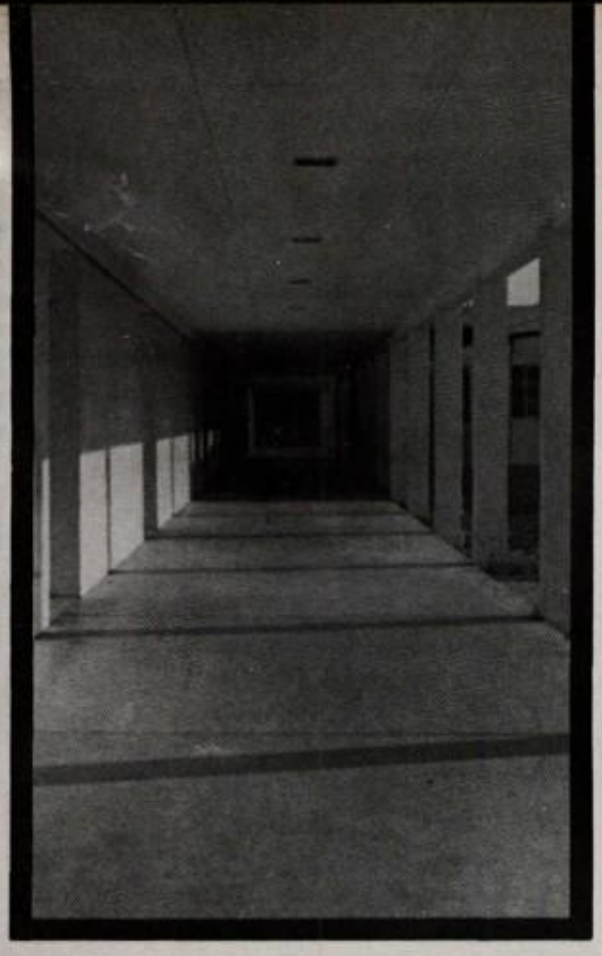
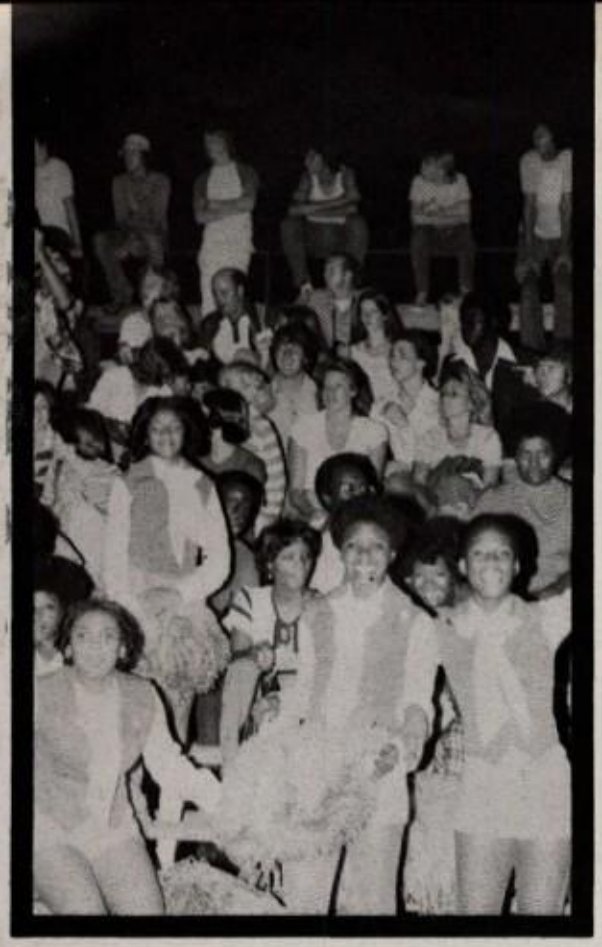
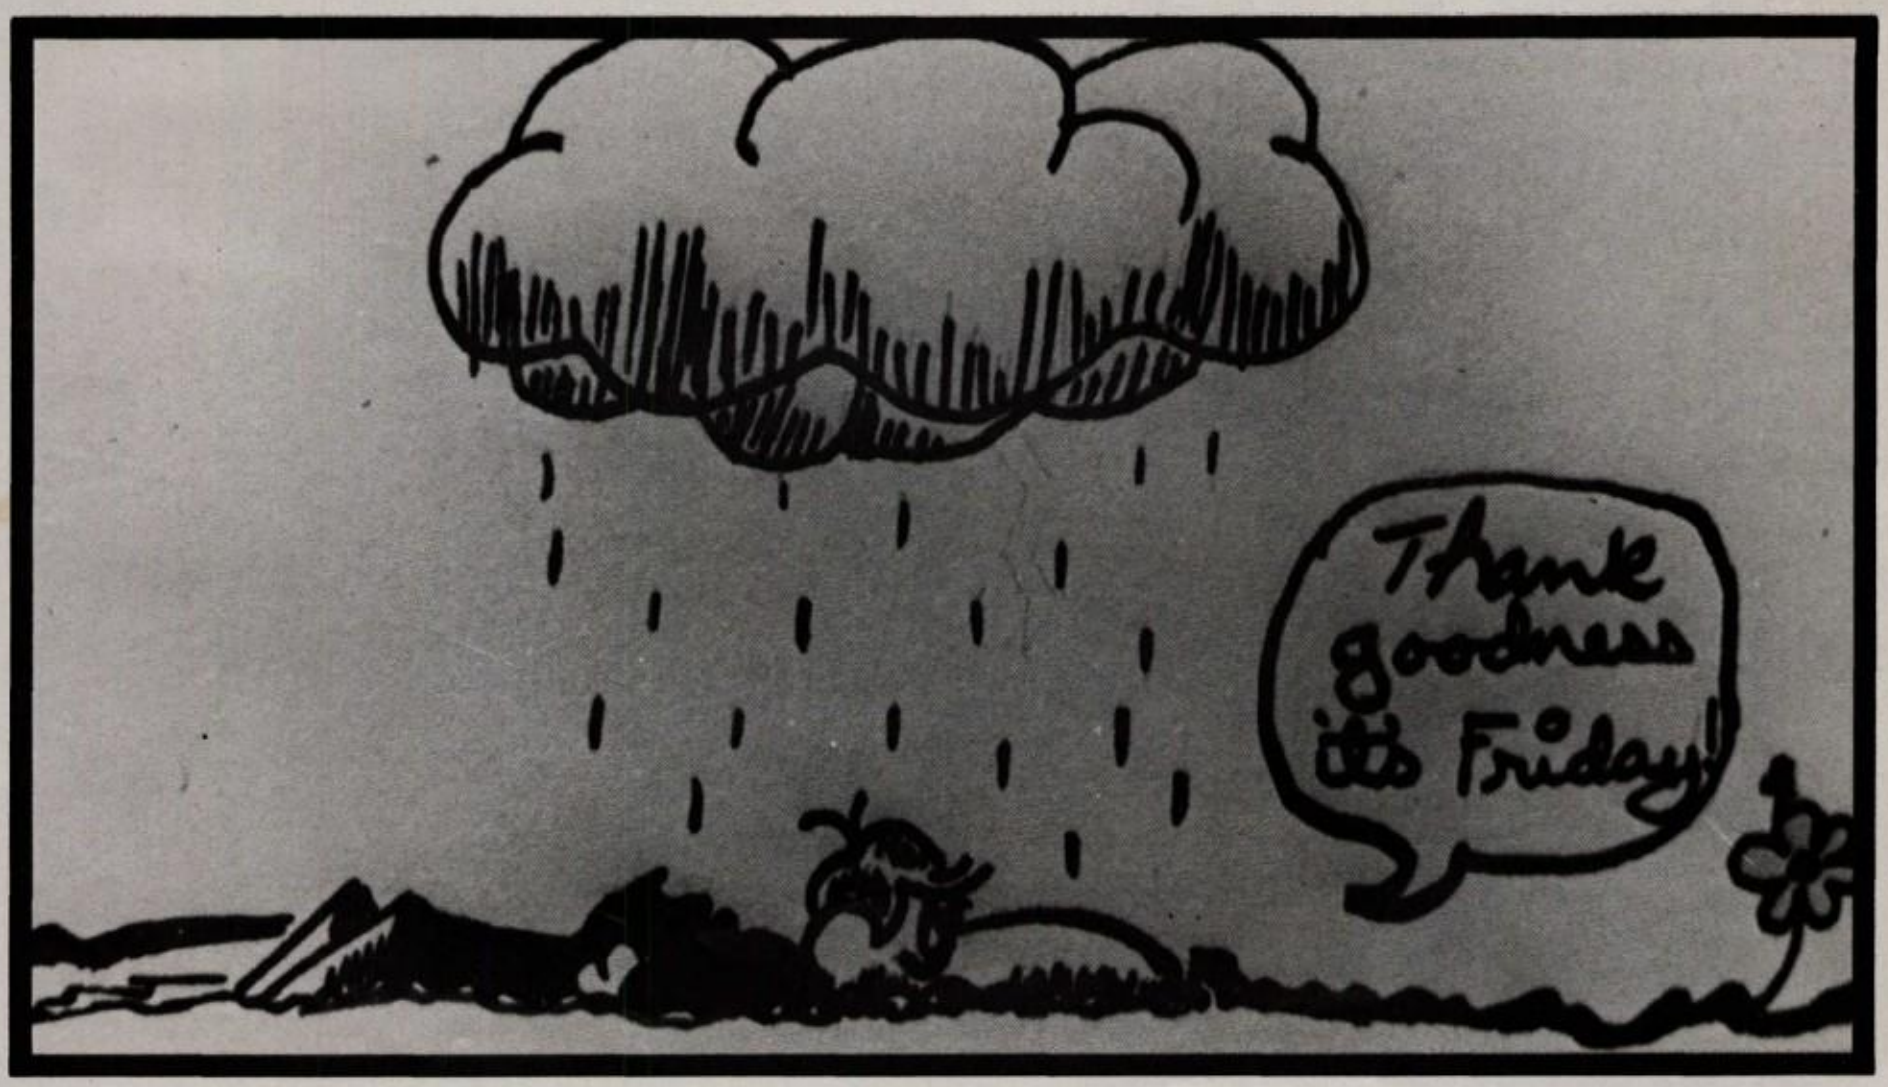
Nobody's
Perfect
Cartoon





Share a relationship with someone.



Thank goodness it's Friday!

Teaching is
Bubbling scanners correctly,
Distributing forms at the proper time and Collecting them . . . ever

Being mentor
Moderator
Monitor
actor . . . on cue,

Taking interruptions calmly and
Treating each one as if it were the first of the year,

Hoping students are present, both physically
and mentally,

Laughing at our own mistakes and
Helping students laugh at theirs,

Remembering that students have something to say,
Something which often is better.

Basking in the beauty of a gleam in an eye saying, "I understand."

Gators band together
for fun and frolic.
throughout Homecoming Activities.

We twist, Bunny hop and Stroll
With our hair greased back, red red lipped Bobbie socked and pony tailed for 50's Day

Long, long hours spent building floats
Strengthen class pride
Pin competition, color day, bring a gator,
and powder puff climax the week.
Spirit mobiles, class floats and the Mighty fighting gators parade the court.

The crowning, the heat, and the win
Finalize "THE YEAR OF THE GATOR"

Being a junior, finally approaching the last step.
As we put our best foot forward
we hesitate . . .
Anticipating our final year.
Not quite to the top, but far from the bottom.
We finally made our way out of limbo,
Beginning preparations for our future.
Security lay in parents, being part of a group,
and just floating through.
Now security lies in facing ourselves,
Standing up for what we believe in,
Making our own decisions,
And setting new goals.
We've grown, still growing,
Our caps set on being SENIORS.

In our second year, we've grown.
Moved up from ground level to the beginning of setting long term goals.

The fun and games we've become accustomed to, and with it the fringes of responsibility.

We've changed.

We've made new friends, broadened
outlooks and recognized ourselves.

Being Juniors?
We'll accept the challenge.

We've experienced, adjusted to, and learned from

Being kicked around by upperclassmen
Leaving familiar surroundings for Gardens, Choosing a locker and then forgetting where it is,
Living up to parents expectations
Trying to survive exams,
Learning the meaning of homecoming,
Carrying our schedules for a whole
Week to make sure we don't get lost,

Preparing to be Sophomores!

Dear
Its been a pleasure knowing you. I hope you find every thing in life that you are looking for. Thanks for the advice, and may I return that same advice to you, but you seem to have your head together, so my advice would be somewhat valid to you. But all that aside, I think you are a very intelligent young man who has everything going for yourself, the opportunities are there for you, all you have to do is reach out it and its yours. When you leave and go off to school don't forget your friends here, and we will always think about you. Remember me and the good old days. May success be yours always.

A friend forever
